A Message from Mayor Amy Wilczynski. . .

Happy Fall everyone. We are into a new season and have lots going on in town! Our fields have switched over to soccer and football, the lake is getting drained and the weather is noticeably cooler. There is also an Oktoberfest event to benefit the Allendale/SR Rotary and the John Fell House coming up on Saturday, October 7th at the Red Barn. Contact jhart@nscadvisor.com for more info.

We had a beautiful 9/11 ceremony. Thank you, Allendale resident, Frank DiMola for telling us your inspiring story. If anyone has a story you would like to share about your experience on 9/11, please contact me.

At our last Council meeting, I had the honor of swearing in 4 of our police officers to sergeant. Congratulations Sergeants Rosendahl, Azevedo, Hillgardner & Helmer. Sgt Hillgardner is also the first female sergeant in Allendale! The Borough continues to support the growth and development of all employees.

Please join us for 'Coffee with the Mayor and Coffee with a Cop' on October 17th from 9-11 at the Allendale Dunkin and meet some of our brand-new officers.

This Saturday, September 30th is Allendale Day from 12-4 sponsored by the Allendale Chamber of Commerce. Please come on by and support all our merchants and have fun!

Allendale Fire Department, Police, and AVAC will be hosting a blood drive on Tuesday, October 19th from 1-7. Please consider donating if you can, every drop counts...

Be on the lookout for more information on the Allendale mural. We have started planning an exciting art project to recreate the mural using paint and tile. The theme elements are history, environment, and community. We plan to involve the schools and community to bring the vision to life, uplift the area of 'Main Street', and establish a sense of pride in the community. More to come....

We had more ribbon cuttings this month. Welcome Minaris, a regenerative cell and gene development & manufacturing company with their state-of-the-art facility. Allendale Senior Living also had a grand reopening for their newly refurbished space. Also, check out the new pollinator garden at Lee Memorial Library created by Maggie Shaw for her Gold award project. A beautiful blue bird sculpture was also unveiled in the space in honor of Stiles Thomas and sculpted by Mike Bertelli.

We are very close to awarding a contractor to build our community center! The address will be 210 West Crescent Ave. The 70 rental units are at 220 WC and the warehouse in the back is 230 WC.

I hope to see you at some of these events around town. Please sign up for constant contact, Swiftreach now called RAVE, and follow the Mayor Amy Wilczynski and Borough FB pages so you are always informed. Also, feel free to contact any council member or myself.

Warm regards,

Amy

DONATE BLOOD TO SAVE A LIFE

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2023 | 1PM - 7PM

Gary Letizia was diagnosed with Leukemia at the age of 68. If not for the countless gallons of blood that kept him bravely battling Leukemia, I wouldn't have had my Dad for that final year. Please consider donating so that someone else's loved one may receive the same precious gift of time.

If you have purchased a compost bin, the Green Team is interested in hearing from you. Please tell us the approximate quantity of kitchen scraps you add to the bin each week and include a picture of the installation if possible. We welcome any questions and comments.

Ridgefield Park has purchased an EPS (packing styrofoam) densifier with a grant provided by the Bergen County Commissioners and will soon begin receiving material from all Bergen County municipalities on a voluntary basis. The material must be clean and white, free of stickers and tape, no peanuts, no food contact foam. The Green Team encourages Allendale residents to set this material aside and contact the Green Team at AllendaleGreenTeam@gmail.com for information on how to participate in this project. DO NOT PLACE THE MATERIAL AT THE CURB with your other recyclable materials. You must contact the Green Team directly.

ALLENDALE HISTORY

FRED LITT
BOROUGH HISTORIAN

MAUDE CONNELLY AND THE AB&G

In 1945, tavern manager Maude Connelly stands in front of the Allendale Hotel holding grandson Bob. With her are daughter Marge, son-in-law Walt Kunisch, and grandson Michael.

In 2023, the Allendale Bar and Grill (the AB&G, the “G”) will celebrate the 76th anniversary of its founding by Maude A. Connelly. On October 11, 1947, Ms. Connelly, forever known by the beloved nickname “Mom”, opened the doors to her new restaurant/tavern, the Allendale Bar & Grill.

The AB&G was born from a determined businesswoman, a widow, a mother of five daughters, who won a contest over a liquor license between herself and Allendale Hotel owner, Ethel Braun Maratene.

Beginning in the early 1900s, the Braun family owned and managed the Allendale Hotel. The hotel tavern was popular and well known to train travelers and nearby farmers. The Great Depression and the passing of owner Valentine J. Braun began the decline of the hotel, eventually leading to the surrender of the liquor license by the Braun family.

In 1935, Maude and husband Michael Connelly moved to Allendale to manage the Allendale Hotel. Michael had the business acumen to apply for and receive the liquor license surrendered by the Braun family. After Michael’s passing in 1938, Maude kept working, creating a business that would continue to thrive, managed today by her great-grandchildren, Chris, Craig, and Katie.

Maude’s journey to establish the AB&G had some tense moments. In 1947, she purchased 67 West Allendale Avenue to begin her own tavern, investing $26,000 to construct the bar and grill addition. In addition, her liquor license needed to be transferred from her use at the Allendale Hotel to her new business. A legal battle ensued, as Maude wanted to have the liquor license transferred to her new tavern, while Allendale Hotel owner Ethel Braun Maratene wanted to keep it for her new hotel tavern venture.

Maude “Mom” Connelly, right, works in the restaurant kitchen with one of her cooks, Casey Mahoney, to prepare an Allendale Bar and Grill favorite—pizza to go.

On August 9, 1974, Allendale Bar and Grill owner and bartender Walter Kunisch serves refreshments as patrons watch Richard Nixon resign on the little black and white television in the corner over the bar.

On September 11, 1947, after a public hearing at the firehouse, the council voted five to one for Maude Connelly to have the license transferred to her new tavern, soon to be known as the Allendale Bar and Grill. Cheering followed the decision. The beginning of the AB&G was also the end of the Allendale Hotel as a viable restaurant and tavern.

BOROUGH OF ALLENDALE

TAX RATE HISTORY

2020	2.413
2021	2.349
2022	2.277
2023	2.199

Why did your property taxes increase if the tax rate continues to decrease?

Property tax is a tax based on the value of the property. Therefore, the market value of a property is the standard that is used to determine one's taxes.

Property taxes are calculated by multiplying your total assessment by the tax rate.

*For example: If your 2023 assessment is $500,000, you would use the following calculation:
 $$500,000 \times 2.199\% = $10,995.00$*

The 1st and 2nd quarter bills are preliminary bills which are calculated using the prior years' tax rate. The 3rd and 4th quarter will be billed using the new tax rate for that year. An estimated tax rate is generally used for the 3rd quarter billing when the final tax rate has not struck by the County by the deadline to send out tax bills.

Questions regarding your bill should be directed to the Tax Collector
Gina Wittmaack (201) 818-4400 x 206

Questions regarding your assessment should be directed to the Tax Assessor
Angela Mattiace (201) 818-4400 x 210
