Holiday Observers News
The Holiday Observers are extremely disappointed to be cancelling the annual Water Festival scheduled for September 5th. Also, we are cancelling the postponed Fourth of July events that had been rescheduled for September 12th. Again, with a prudent view regarding the health of the community, we do not believe enough has changed to warrant taking the risk of reversing the progress Allendale and NJ have made with regard to the spread of the virus.

Unfortunately, this year has been like no other for all of us, including the Holiday Observers. Hopefully, better days are on the horizon and we can return to the fun and community involvement of our traditional Holiday Observers’ events. We will be back at full force, eager to serve when appropriate to celebrate with all of Allendale.

Stay healthy and safe.
